Dear Valued Client

RE: LOGISTA INCORPORATED IS CHANGING

Important notification!

Logista Incorporated is now changing its name to BGR Alluvium Incorporated as of 1 January 2016.

After it was established 1964, as a sole practitioner, we went through a number of name changes.

With this name change we present ourselves as a fully-fledged network firm of the BGR Group of Independent Auditors, using our new name and logo proudly.

Along with this change in company name, we will be adapting our corporate identity to suit. Our e-mail addresses will change to the domain @bgralluvium and our webpage will become www.bgralluvium.co.za.

It is important for BGR Alluvium Incorporated to have a company name that ensures a high degree of recognition among all our business contacts.

The new name and brand better reflects the firm we have become – a competitive firm of dedicated professionals focusing on operating as a professional services firm of choice as BGR Alluvium Incorporated traditionally stands for being the standard in delivering high quality professional services both in appearance and content.

“Your business, our people – Experience the difference”

Other than these visible changes you will see no further changes. As an appreciated client of ours you will experience the same professional service which you're accustomed to under the new name.

Kind regards
